Letter to the fellowship

New Life in Risen Christ

Easter marks that we have made it through the cloudy days of winter. This wonderful occasion of life comes in early spring just when flowers in our area are bursting with rainbow colours. Spring reminds us that new life will come again. Bleak seasons of despair, doubt and loneliness will give way to new seasons of life. We can learn a lot from nature if we stop long enough to notice the lessons of creation.

Easter is all about new life. New life we receive in Christ. Just like when a Caterpillar changes to a beautiful butterfly. One by one, the grey cases begin to twist and turn violently and suddenly split open. A beautiful butterfly emerges. It stands for hours gently moving its wings, pumping fluids into them to extend them fully. Then the butterfly soars gracefully away on the breezes of summer, leaving nothing behind but a broken chrysalis to indicate its former bondage.

The chrysalis and butterfly suggest the empty grave clothes of our risen Lord. When Peter and John heard the news that the Lord's body was gone from the garden tomb, they ran all the way from their lodging. Peter entered the tomb and "he saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen" (John 20:6-7, NIV).

The grave clothes once wrapped continuously around the body now lay collapsed, mute testimony that the corpse they had once shrouded had now emerged in life.

The bondage of death is broken. Christ is risen! Hallelujah! We can face tomorrow with the assurance that Jesus is in fact alive to help us, to guide us, to give us hope for the future. And since He is living, our problems are not insolvable. The broken chrysalis of His grave clothes proclaims that Christ is Victor even over death. Because He lives, nothing is impossible.

Jesus has defeated the forces of death and in his great love; he calls each of us by name and invites us to new life here now and forever.

Happy Easter
Sohail Ejaz

Prayers for our Fellowship and those we know

Prayers can be for joy and sorrow, health and sickness, good news and bad in addition to those for our own needs and guidance.

We keep in our prayers all those who are mourning the loss of a loved one, give them your peace Lord and the knowledge that family and friends are there for them to lean on when life is difficult.

There are many who find it difficult to get to Worship week by week and we think especially of Hilda Burgess, Ann Cassells and Hilda Prior. We pray for those who are ill, in constant pain, recovering, and awaiting treatment:

Ann Crowhurst, Roy Davis, Pat Goodhew, Olive Goodyear, Peter Hunt and Margaret King.

We also pray for those of our fellowship who are finding life difficult at the present time either with health, job or family worries. Give them peace of spirit and the knowledge that God knows of all their difficulties and hears all of their prayers.

Father, hear our prayers
Amen

Please feel free to use the Prayer Book placed on the Prayer Table, in the Foyer, to write down any names or events you want to be prayed for during the Service.

Do make use of our prayer cards, whether to give thanks or to request prayers in specific need. You may remain anonymous if you wish. There is a collection box on the prayer table in the foyer.

Requests will be prayed over at the Tuesday prayer group and other appropriate times.

For prayers during Sunday Service, please continue to use the prayer book on the table.

Prayers for people and matters outside of our fellowship

Please pray for:-

All nations where there is hunger and thirst

All places where there is violence and little mercy

All people who have no place to shelter

Leaders of all nations that they may seek peace.

The Glory of Life

The Glory of Life is to love, not to be loved.

To give,
not to get.

To serve
not to be served.

To be a strong hand in the dark to another in the time of need.

To be a cup of strength to any soul in a crisis of weakness;

This is to know the Glory of Life

SECRETARY'S NOTEBOOK

Well here we are, a quarter of the way through the year already! Here at home the forsythia is in full bloom, a sure sign of spring and I have cleaned the greenhouse, and sown seeds for this year's produce. Now to be patient (not my greatest virtue as most of you know!) and see what germinates. We already have some overwintered salad leaves and greens, and the asparagus is beginning to peep through. I do love wandering down the garden around 3pm to gather what we shall eat that day - beats shopping at the supermarket!

I spent the earlier part of the month collating the organisations' reports, and printing the report book in readiness for the Annual General Meeting on 23rd March. I thank all those who have indicated their willingness to undertake various tasks for another year. The Annual General Meeting is not just a time of looking back on the past year, but setting aims for the future, this year in relation to projects outside our walls. Thus it was that we were able to take up the challenge to raise funds for the expansion of Lekkerwater Secondary School in Zimbabwe as a contribution to the Eastern Synod partnership with the Presbytery and a Quiz Night will be arranged shortly. We also discussed ways to support a local project, the bus to be turned into a night shelter for the homeless, of which I am sure there will be more news later.

At March Messy Church we looked at the story of Elijah and the prophets of Baal, and saw how one man's utter faith in God to do something miraculous at the right time, turned the tide for a whole nation. We had a visit from Martyn Payne of the Bible Reading Fellowship (Messy Church's parent organisation) and it was good to have some tips from him too!

Our service on 5th March was conducted by Roger Brett, in his usual lively manner, and on 12th the Church Parade was led by Sohail talking about God's love in our lives. We welcomed Rev Trevor Williams to speak to us on 19th - and what a coincidence (?) that one of the readings and part of his message concerned Moses leading the Israelites in the desert, the very same subject as is being covered in Pilots and the older Junior Church. Our service on Mothering Sunday was conducted by Robert Wiseman who spoke about three women; the Gentile whose daughter was healed, his own mother and Mary, the mother of Jesus. Clive Goodhew presided for the monthly Communion. It also being Mothering Sunday, gifts were presented to all the ladies of the congregation.

Throughout the month many of us have been putting aside small change for the Water Aid Jars of Change Lent Appeal, and we thank everyone who has contributed. The closing date is 23rd April, and I would also like to thank Ann and Mick who always have extra work to do when we have special collections. Towards the end of March we were also invited to support the East Africa Emergency Famine Appeal; although our April Communion Offerings are already designated for Christian Aid, in view of the urgency of the situation emergency envelopes were made available and we thank all those who felt able to make an extra donation.

On 25th March a group of us gathered to get to grips with iChurch, the new website platform developed by the URC, and were glad to have Rebecca Gudgeon from iChurch to put us through our paces and assist with setting up our church's new website. More information will follow when it 'goes live'.

Easter is nearly upon us, the time of the year when we observe and consider the events of Jesus' last week in human form. We look forward to welcoming everyone to our special services at this important time of the Christian calendar.

News from the Forum (2nd & 4th Tuesday each month)

We have met twice since the last magazine came out and we have one more meeting to look forward to in March.

In our second meeting in February we had Mike Mead along to talk to us about his life and work. Mike gave us a very interesting insight to his earlier life working in the world of finance and then instead of taking a life of leisure when early retirement seemed on the cards he trained as a driving instructor, and this year celebrated twenty years in that profession. We were shown a fascinating film of the very early years of the driving test and it caused much amusement among the members especially the drivers! We then had a short tick box style quiz as to how we would react to certain situations we might meet on the road. Some left us a bit perplexed and seemed to be the lesser of two evils to get the 'right 'answer'. Thank you Mike, and to Linda too, who came along to help with the projector.

Our meeting on the 14th of March was a change from our normal 'sit and listen' style afternoons. We had all been asked to bring along a memento from our past which meant a lot to us or brought back memories for us. From photographs of grandchildren to certificates for long service to the voluntary sector we had a wide-ranging set of artefacts to look at and hear about. A tablecloth, the first piece of embroidery learned at Grandma's knee, the photos of the opening of the Ferndale Baptist Church by Mrs Prior senior, a Bible with a cover of cedar wood and a medal from the Cyprus campaign took us back to the service in the forces. And mementoes from holidays or training days all added to the afternoon's interest. Some took us into the world of family history, others gave even the owner a surprise as they shared the information with us. Personally I found the afternoon very worthwhile and maybe one to repeat perhaps with a different theme.

Finally we hope to enjoy a learning curve on the 28th of March as we are shown some Origami techniques by John Wootton.

As you can see life is never dull at the Forum and we invite anyone along to our meetings should you wish to try something new. Just come along to the Foyer on the second or fourth Tuesday afternoons at 2.30pm. See you then.

NEWS FROM THE FELLOWSHIP

I just want to say a big thank you to you all for your prayers, love and fellowship which I have enjoyed during my stay in hospital and through this time of recuperation. I'm not the one of the best patients, lacking patience I am very frustrated at what I am not allowed to do and subsequently give Zoy a rough ride despite all her love and patience with me; therefore I would value your continued praying during this limiting time of recovery.

Thank you again for your concern and prayers, they are very much appreciated.

Peter Hunt

Ponder on this

Those who enter my house should never mention the faults of others.

Those who gossip and do not speak the truth about others should stay out of my house.

Everybody has their faults and should not, therefore, talk about those of others, but consider their own and let others be as they are. If we are full of love, we shall not pay any attention to the faults and trespasses of our neighbour.

If you want to please God and all others, help to carry their burden.

If you want to avoid sin, mind what you say.

If you want real peace, look for silence and unity and first try to find out about yourself in solitude.

If ever you get to know bad news, ask God to spare you.
Accept your life without questioning the ultimate purpose of God.

Peter's Piece - Day of the Resurrection

For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, 'in the same way' [so also - in the Greek] God will with Jesus, bring those who have fallen asleep in him. 1 Thessalonians 4:14

Having the joyful expectation of looking forward to some extremely enjoyable future event that we have planned, for example a holiday, is something that, no doubt, all of us have experienced. As believing Christians, Easter Day both looks back to Jesus' powerful, victorious resurrection and forward to the fact that by it, we too do indeed, have the assurance of just such a hope, which should preoccupy all our thinking about the future including our death.

In the previous verse Paul says you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. When we lay to rest those who have died trusting in Jesus the Messiah although we are sad because our earthly experience with them has ended, that natural grief is eased because we know that God, just as he raised Jesus, will 'in the same way', one day, resurrect and bring all those who have died believing in Jesus, God's Messiah. c.p. v 16. [v. 14 fallen asleep in him. is the Bible term.]

As we contemplate and rejoice in Our Lord's glorious resurrection this Easter, may the Holy Spirit bring us the joy of being assured that one day we and all who have died believing in Jesus will, 'in the same way', also share in just such a marvellous, wonderful resurrection and that He will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body. Philippians 3:20-21. 1 John 3:2. [when Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.] 1 Corinthians 15:52. [the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.] This really is something to look forward to, to greatly rejoice in and to encourage one another with these words. v. 1

Recording of services

We are now sound recording every Sunday service, so please let Vic Crowhurst know if you would like a copy for yourself, someone who could not be with us that day or perhaps to give to someone to listen to how well we sing!

For special and festival services we may make video recordings and if you would not wish to appear in these, then please speak to anyone at the sound and vision desk before the service starts. There should be a prior warning of the services involved.

Thought for Easter Day

Easter is not a time for groping through dusty tomes or musty tombs to quell the godless claims of those who scoff or even to prove life eternal.

It is a day to fan the ashes of dead hope, a day to banish doubts and seek the slopes where the Sun of Justice is rising, to revel in our Christian faith which transports us out of ourselves and the dead past into God's vast and inviting unknown.
